

The women's bright colored Sarees fill the small room with a beautiful silk rainbow. The women at the Baruipara tailoring training center sit on the floor, learning from an experienced trainer the art of tailoring. The sixteen women enrolled in the recently-opened tailoring training class have eagerly dedicated themselves to learning, quickly mastering the design of skirts and boys' shorts. Even more impressive than their sewing and beautiful smiles are their inquisitive questions and eagerness to absorb information.

Baruipara Training Center